Objectives	The objective of the site-specific EHS induction is to provide participants with the knowledge of the EHS procedures and risk and hazards specific to a particular workplace or site.
	This form when completed is evidence that Lend Lease has ensured: - A worker holds a General Construction Industry Training Card No. or WA/Vic equivalent - A worker holds the high risk licences they claim they do - A worker has worked in the construction industry in the last two years (where applicable) - A worker has been provided health and safety information relevant to the workplace in a way that is readily understandable by them - A worker's competence to work on a Lend Lease Services workplace has been assessed.
Responsibility	The workplace manager is responsible and accountable for ensuring that the site specific EHS induction is completed by all workers prior to commencing work at their workplace and that this form is completed fully.
Qualifications of trainer	Persons conducting or developing the site-specific EHS induction training are not required to hold workplace trainer quantications but must have the relevant knowledge and/or experience to competently provide the training. Persons de livering the induction are appointed by the Workplace Manager in consultation with the HSEQ Manager.
Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)	All information gathered on the Induction Record is subject to the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and all completed induction records must be stored securely.
Proof of identity	Proof of identify is required to confirm that the worker listed on the General Construction Industry Training Card No. or WA/Vic equivalent is the same person who's is attending the induction. This can be achieved by sighting one of the following photo identification cords: - Current Australian Driver's licence - Current Proof of Age Card - Australian or overseas Passport (current, or expired within the previous two years, but not cancelled) - Current MSIC or ASIC card - Current Tertiary Education Institution Protect - Working With Children/Teachers Registration Card - Birth Certificate/Birth Extract - Australian citizenship certificate Where the above cannot be provided, any four (4) of the following will be acceptable: - Foreign/International Driver's Licence - Medicare Card/Private Health Care Card - Council Rates Notice - Property Lease/Rental Agreement - Property Insurance Papers
	- Tax Declaration - Superannuation Statement - Electoral Roll Registration - Motor Vehicle Registration or Insurance Documents - Professional or Trade Association Card - Utility Bills (e.g. Telephone, Gas, Electricity, Water) - Credit/Debit Card(s) - Bank Statement/Passbook
Language & Literacy	Lendlease Services have a legal obligation under relevant OHS/OSH/WHS legislation to provide health and safety information relevant to the workplace in a way that is readily understandable by workers. The Inductor must therefore ensure that efforts are made to ensure that the language and literacy requirements of workers are determined prior to the commencement of the induction and appropriate arrangements made to meet this obligation in consultation with the worker's employer.
