National Police History Check

LIMITATIONS ON ACCURACY AND USE OF THIS INFORMATION

1. The accuracy and quality of this National Police History Check (NPHC) depends on accurate identification of the Applicant (including aliases) according to the information provided in the Application Form and the comprehensiveness of police records.
2. While every care has been taken by the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) to conduct a search of Police History Information held by Australian Police Agencies that relate to the Applicant, this report may not include all Police History Information relating to the Applicant. Reasons for Police History being excluded from the report include the operation of laws that prevent disclosure of certain Police History Information, or that the applicant's record is not identified by the search process across the Police History Information holdings.
3. The NPHC is a point in time check and should not be relied upon for an unreasonable amount of time.
4. It is important to provide the Applicant with a reasonable opportunity to respond to or validate the information in this report before making any decisions that may adversely affect the Applicant.
5. To the extent permitted by law, all information provided in this report is made available for use on the following conditions:
 - a. The ACIC makes no representation or warranty of any kind without limitation in respect to accuracy;
 - b. The information in this report should form only one part of any process for determining a person's suitability for any entitlement, profession, undertaking, appointment or employment.
6. To the extent permitted by law, neither the ACIC nor Australian Police Agencies accept responsibility or liability for any error or omission in the information.

THE NATIONAL POLICE HISTORY CHECK PROCESS

The information in this report has been obtained according to the following process:

- a) The ACIC searching a central index for potential matches with the name(s) of the Applicant;
- b) The ACIC and the relevant Australian Police Agencies comparing name matches with Police History Information held in Australian police records;
- c) The relevant Australian Police Agency identifying any Police History Information held in their police records and releasing the information subject to relevant spent convictions, non-disclosure legislation or information release policies;
- d) The ACIC providing a result of the NPHC to CVCheck indicating that a record of Police History Information relating to the Applicant is held or not; and
- e) The ACIC providing that Police History Information to CVCheck.

SECURITY NOTES

The NPHC contains a number of inbuilt security features. The absence of these features indicates that this is not authentic. If there is any doubt regarding the authenticity of this document, or validity of the information printed thereon, contact CVCheck at cvcheck.com.

Security Features:

- To verify the contents of a NPHC go to cvcheck.com/VerifiedPoliceCheck:
 - Enter the Certificate Number and Access Code displayed on the NPHC into the relevant fields and click "Go to Verified Information" (or click the link on an electronic NPHC).
 - Click "View Results" to display the Control Certificate.
 - Check the Certificate: Your Certificate must be an exact match with the Control Certificate displayed on CVCheck's website. If it is not an exact match your document is void.
